

The impact of Browne, the forthcoming White Paper and the UKBA Student Immigration Review on Collaborative Partnerships in the Private Sector
(A Joint Seminar with the BAC)

Date: Wednesday 13th April 2011

Venue:
Wilkins Old Refectory, Main Quadrangle, University College London, Gower Street, London WC1E 6BT

Time: 10.30 to 4.00pm

Seminar fee: Members £120 - Non Members £180
(Members are CVU members and BAC Accredited Institutions)

1030 Registration

1100 Welcome

1105 CVU and Institutional Perspective – Ruth Carter, Head of Quality Assurance and Enhancement, University of East London

1140 A View from the BAC – Professor Steve Bristow, Head of Inspection Services, British Accreditation Council

1215 QAA View on Browne and the forthcoming White Paper – Dr Stephen Jackson, Director of Reviews, Quality Assurance Agency

1300 Lunch

1345 UKBA Tier 4 consultation findings and implications (UKBA representative) Presentation and Q&A

1430 Group Discussions, Panel Reflections and Questions from the Floor.

1530 Closing remarks (CVU/BAC)