

A joint Council of Validating Universities and British Accreditation Council Seminar

The impact of Browne, the White Paper and the UKBA Immigration Review on Collaborative Partnerships in the Private Sector

Wednesday 13th April 2011

Venue:

Wilkins Old Refectory, University College London, Gower Street WC1E 6BT

The HE Sector is entering a period of dramatic change. This Seminar will look at the potential impact of these changes on collaborative partnerships with an emphasis on partnerships between Universities and education providers based in the private sector. Alongside the proposed changes to the HE Sector the government has asked the UKBA to conduct a review of immigration policy. The combination of both policy initiatives will have an impact on institutions, public and private, that recruit students from overseas. It will also impact on HEIs that are in partnership or seeking to form partnerships with private sector providers.

The Seminar will be of interest to:

- HEIs that have partnerships with Education Providers in the private sector
- Higher Education Providers in the private sector
- Institutions that recruit students from overseas
- Organisations both Public and Private that wish to enter into partnership agreements.

If you wish to book please complete the Booking Form and return it to the CVU Office, Edge Hill University, St Helens Road, Ormskirk, L39 4QP.

Last years' joint seminar with the BAC attracted a lot of interest so please book early to be assured of a place.
